

With so many individuals applying for the same role this upcoming election, how can you decide who is the best candidate? If you're seeking someone who merely performs the work assigned, without any innovative leadership of their own, then I am not the person for you.

However, if you seek a capable, team-oriented person with a dynamic outlook on life and a strong desire to succeed in External Affairs. Then you should vote for me.

I have solid interpersonal skills, with the ability to communicate with individuals at all levels. I also have strong talents in creating, writing, and producing communication pieces. My organizational skills have allowed me to prioritize schedules and consistently complete projects within challenging time and budget guidelines.

I know I will make a positive contribution to URSU and look forward to this upcoming election. Do not hesitate to stop me in the middle of the hallway and ask me a question. This upcoming year is where we take our university to the top, and with your help we can make it possible. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Hamza Sheikh
