Introduction

The University of Regina Students' Union (URSU) requires that elections are held regularly (in the form of a General and By-Election) to maintain a complete Board of Directors. URSU may also call for a referendum to have students vote on structural changes to student-supported levees.

General Information

This package is meant to provide you with guidance and assistance through your URSU Elections experience. It is your responsibility to understand and adhere to the content contained herein. While this is not a substitute for the Election and Referendum Bylaw, the URSU Constitution, The Non-Profit Corporations Act or any other relevant URSU governing documents it contains a fairly comprehensive explanation of the election and campaigning regulations as they concern candidates and campaign groups. It also contains some helpful hints for running a successful campaign. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the election, please feel free to consult the Chief Returning Officer (CRO).

Chief Returning Officer (CRO)

To maintain a fair and democratic process, URSU is required to hire a Chief Returning Officer to oversee the election process. This person is in charge of ensuring that URSU Election By-laws are followed and that any disputes and conflicts are dealt with properly and in a timely manner.

Executive Candidates Expectations Interview

Any candidate interested in running for an URSU Executive position must attend an in-person interview with the General Manager prior to the end of the nomination period. The CRO shall not accept a nomination if a candidate has not had this interview. The purpose of this interview is to ensure that the candidate fully understands the scope of the position they are interested in and the expectations required of an Executive member.

All Candidates Meeting

All candidates who have had their nominations accepted will be informed of and must attend an All Candidates Meeting. This is an official meeting with the CRO prior to the official campaigning period and will inform you about details including campaigning guidelines, spending, etc.

Campaigning

Campaigning helps publicize a candidate's candidacy to students. Campaigning allows students to learn a candidate's platform (where they stand on issues, their ideas, etc.) in order to make an informed decision.

Campaigning Period

See Important Dates section

Materials

Campaigning materials to be used are only those that are sanctioned by this document and as prescribed by the URSU Election and Referendum Bylaw.

All election materials and content must be approved by the CRO prior to posting, including online content.

Expenses

No candidate shall spend more than what is approved by the CRO on their campaign. Currently that limit is $200.

Candidates are eligible for reimbursement of expenses upon presentation of receipts to a maximum of $200. The attached "Statement of Election Expenses" form must be submitted, along with the corresponding receipts, to the Chief Returning Officer by the appropriate deadline to be eligible for reimbursement as per the terms set out in the URSU Elections and Referendum Bylaw.

See Important Dates section for submission deadline.

The value of all goods and services received at less than fair market value or by donation must be declared at the LOWEST ATTAINABLE RETAIL PRICE (i.e. the price available to all other candidates). The value of the labour, incentives, or other promotional perks must be declared according to existing rates or the lowest attainable retail value for the work provided. This also applies to organizations and their employees who are specifically involved or connected to a campaign group.

Campaigning Rules

- No alcohol will be permitted at election-related events as the URSU has a membership made up of different ages and faiths and campaigns should strive to be as inclusive as possible.
- No active campaigning will be allowed on polling days. This includes campaigning on social media platforms.
- All candidates must comply with the Election and Referendum Bylaw of the URSU.
- Any printed material to be dispersed by the candidate shall include, on its front cover and in legible form, the name of the candidate.
- No campaigning whatsoever will be permitted in any library on campus.
- No campaigning whatsoever will be permitted in The Owl bar or the URSU offices.
- Any form of advertisement or campaign material must adhere to the URSU Poster and Banner and the Corridor Use and Tabling policies. The responsibility lies with the candidates to familiarize themselves with these rules.
- No stickers will be permitted.

- No painting or chalking on buildings and sidewalks is allowed.
- Messages on blackboards/whiteboards are permitted.
- Off-campus advertising, other than posters/leaflets/banners, is not permitted.
- Signs indicating the location of polling booths are not to be covered with campaign posters or other materials. Any URSU posters dealing with the election must not be tampered with, moved, or covered up.
- The logos of URSU or its affiliated business, operations and/or services must not be used by any candidate.
- Candidates, under any circumstances, must not tamper with, move, or alter another candidate's campaign material.
- Online campaigning may be permitted as long as it follows the general guidelines set out by the URSU Election and Referendum Bylaw, all relevant URSU policies and the rules set out in this document.
- Slate behaviour will not be tolerated. Each candidate must have unique materials (posters, handbills, Facebook page), including their platform.
- No campaigning is permitted in the U of R residences.
- Candidates are not allowed within fifty (50) meters of a physical polling or election information station.

Rules about slates

Slates have been banned from URSU elections. You may still 'endorse' a friend who is running, but make sure to follow these rules:

- you may not run as a group using a team 'name' or 'slogan'
- all campaign materials must look unique, and must not use the same design as another candidate (including: posters, brochures, t-shirts, etc.)
- you are not allowed to pool election expenses with other candidates
- you ARE allowed to hand out materials for a friend, but must make it clear that you are endorsing your friend and NOT running as a group with them

Candidate Profiles

One election platform (250-word document and attached hi-res passport-style photo) for each candidate will be posted by the CRO on URSU's website and/or other social media platforms. Submitting a PDF of the platform is encouraged, and candidates are responsible for proofreading. Candidate profiles should be submitted to the CRO by the appropriate deadline. Candidate profiles and photos will only be accepted in PDF, JPEG, BMP, or TIFF format, not a Word Document.

See Important Dates section for submission deadline.

Voting Period

See Important Dates section.

Polling for the general election will begin: Monday, March 16th, 2020 at 12:00 AM

Polling for the general election will end: Tuesday, March 17th, 2020 at 11:59 PM

Tips! Getting Your Message Out

Candidate Profiles & Election Supplement

A platform is a great way to say why you are the best candidate or why your point of view is the one students should choose to agree with.

Platforms of NO MORE THAN 250 WORDS, typed and double-spaced, and one photo of the nominee may be submitted for each candidate. This will be available online and from poll clerks on voting days, and may be printed in The Carillon. Photos should clearly illustrate the candidate, much like a passport photo or drivers license ID does. The bigger the image, the better. Please forward to the CRO as a separate file, NOT as part of your nomination package!

Posters

Posters are a splendid way of letting people know that you are running as a candidate in the election, and making your lovely face a familiar sight on campus. You are responsible for knowledge of and, of course, obeying the URSU Poster and Banner and the Corridor Use and Tabling policies, which may be obtained at the URSU Member Services Desk or from the URSU website (www.ursu.ca).

POSTERS FOR CANDIDATES AND CAMPAIGN GROUPS MAY BE NO LARGER THAN 11" X 17" (Tabloid)!

Helpful Hint: You can cover campus quite thoroughly using less than 50 posters. Colour (printed or by hand) really makes a poster stand out on a crowded poster board.

Posters must only be placed on the URSU poster boards and are not permitted to be taped, stapled, or in any way adhered to any wall surfaces that are not poster boards. This includes building walls, news stands, etc. The URSU poster boards are ONLY located on the 1st floor of campus buildings. Violators will have their posters removed and then will be notified of these violations.
