

DAPHNE NNEBEIFE'S PROFILE

Daphne is currently a second-year undergraduate student in the University of Regina. Daphne major's in International Studies with a concentration in International Development in the Faculty of Arts. Daphne is currently the founder and president of the Model United Nations club in the university. Daphne developed a passion for leadership after seeing her father excel in his job and has been on a path ever since. Daphne began her journey right from Highschool excelling in both academics and sports managing to graduate high school at the age of fifteen but not before winning various medals and certificates in sports.

DAPHNE NNEBEIFE'S MANIFESTO

Running for a position in the board of directors to represent the faculty of arts daphne hopes to achieve the following:

1. To push for more stalls with jobs available for Faculty of Arts student in upcoming Job fairs
2. Advocate for an active Co-op program for more departments in the Faculty of Arts
3. Advocate for more events related to the involve all Departments in the Faculty.
4. Push for more student societies in the Faculty to help new and current students in the Faculty

Daphne Wishes to push for more inclusivity of the Faculty of Arts in university activities and advocate for more job related activities pursued for Faculty of Arts Students.