

Hi, my name is Pathey Rakesh Sevak I'm a computer science major student, and I am contesting as a faculty director for Luther college, I am an extrovert person, my hobbies are Dancing, music, Graphic designing and talking to people.

As a faculty director of Luther college, I believe in the power of education to transform lives and communities. My role is to serve as a leader, collaborator, and advocate for the faculty members under my purview, and to ensure that our academic programs are of the highest quality and relevance to our students.

Empowering Faculty: I will work to create an environment where faculty members are empowered to innovate, experiment, and pursue their academic passions. I will support professional development opportunities for faculty and promote a culture of continuous learning and improvement. Fostering Diversity and Inclusion: I will strive to foster a diverse and inclusive community where all individuals are valued, respected, and supported. I will work to recruit and retain a diverse faculty that reflects the diversity of our student body and the communities we serve.

In all of these efforts, I will seek to be transparent, collaborative, and inclusive. I will work to build strong relationships with faculty members, students, alumni, and other stakeholders to advance our academic mission and enhance our impact on the world.
